Central Government
how to be recovered.

25. Every amount advanced by the Central Government or the Custodian, as the case may be, for the management of a coal mine during the period in which the management of such coal mine remained vested in the Central Government, shall be recovered from the income derived from the transactions which took place at any time after the commencement of the Coal Mines (Taking Over of Management) Act, 1973, but before the appointed day notwithstanding that such income was derived after the appointed day:

Provided that where such income is insufficient to meet in full the total amount of the advance made by the Central Government or the Custodian for the management of the coal mine, the Central Government may make a claim to the Commissioner for the deficiency and thereupon the claim in respect of such deficiency shall have priority over the claims of all other unsecured creditors of the coal mine including those referred to in sub-section (2) of section 22.

Explanation.—In this section, "Custodian" means the Custodian appointed under the Coal Mines (Taking Over of Management) Act, 1973.

Disbursement of amounts to the owners of coal mines.

- 26. (1) If out of the monies paid to him in relation to a coal mine or group of coal mines specified in the second column of the Schedule, there is a balance left after meeting the liabilities of all the secured and unsecured creditors, the Commissioner shall disburse such balance to the owner of such coal mine or group of coal mines.
- (2) Before making any payment to the owner of any coal mine or group of coal mines under sub-section (1), the Commissioner shall satisfy himself as to the right of such person to receive the whole or any part of such amount, and in the event of there being a doubt or dispute as to the right of the person to receive the whole or any part of the amount, referred to in sections 8 and 9, the Commissioner shall-refer the matter to the court and make the disbursement in accordance with the decision of the court.
- (3) For the removal of doubts, it is hereby declared that the entries in the fourth column of the Schedule shall not be deemed to be conclusive as to the right, title and interest of any person in relation to any coal mine specified in the corresponding entries in the second column of the Schedule and evidence shall be admissible to establish the right, title and interest of any person in relation to such coal mine.
